

CULTUREGRAMS ONLINE EDITION: CultureQuiz!

1. The U. S. considers Sierra Leone the least developed nation in the world. What is its female literacy rate?
2. In what U. S. state was root beer invented?
3. In the U.S. we love our cars, but two other nations have more cars (per capita) than we do. Name them.
4. Name at least three spices used in the preparation of Russian sausage.
5. Ylang-ylang, the essential oil used in most French perfumes, comes primarily from which island country?
6. Botswana is battling an AIDS/HIV epidemic. Approximately what portion of its citizenry is infected?
7. During the California gold rush era, many miners sent their laundry to this state because prices in California were too high.
8. Which African nation claims to possess the original Ark of the Covenant?
9. Malaysians love a particular fruit that has been banned in many hotels. What is the name of the fruit and why is it unwelcome in finer establishments?
10. In 2001, Finland was the top ranking country in the UN's Technology Achievement index, which measures technology creation and use. After browsing the Finland CultureGrams, can you determine some factors and evidence that contributed to this accolade?